RISING UP ANGRY

A REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO BUILDING A NEW MAN, A NEW WOMAN, AND A NEW WORLD

EARLY WINTER 25c VOL. 2 NO. 4

'Our revolutionary experiences will be unique, our own, but they will be part of the world revolution. The people of the world are one. The revolutionaries of America are the allies of revolutionaries throughout the world, they are our allies. Through learning of their experiences, we supplement our own, always learning in order to build our part of the world revolution.'

WOMEN IN PRISON

Sisters in jail are political prisoners and don't deserve the brutality layed down on them. Political prisoners because their so-called crimes are often simple acts of survival. They are forced to become shoplifters, prostitutes, runaways and addicts - just to exist in a deprived society like this one.

Larceny (like shoplifting and petty theft) is the largest offense that women are busted for and has risen faster than any other single crime area. The pigs say 'we just can't understand this.' But anyone knows that with prices going up and wages going down - sometimes, there's no other way to get what you need. Prostitution is another way for women to survive. By using their role in society, as a sex object, they can earn a living. They portray the role as it really is, but then get slammed in jail by the same men they go to bed with. Because of this hypocrisy and constant humiliation in our society, many sisters feel they have no choice but to try and hide from it. They use drugs and liquor to deaden their feelings and slowly destroy themselves. A few women see that drugs and liquor is only another way to help the establishment make them even more oppressed. So they run away from their present enviornment in search of a less sadistic city or town, only to be snatched up and thrown in jail as an example to other women who try to escape. They are charged with such bullshit as desertion, kidnapping their own kids, and if they are young enough, they are stamped runaways.

Runaways are very common in this country and surprisingly enough, 50% of all runaways are women. Kids are hip to their parents scene and don't want to get caught in the same fascist circle. They run for their lives and in turn get caught up in the circle of larceny, prostitution, and heavy drug scenes. Then they get busted and really experience all the forces of a pig run government. First in court and then in one of the jails, prisons or mental institutions that they are forced into.

Women are sent up by male judges who have their own opinion on what true 'womanhood' is, and they try to force this on their victims. In reality they don't even begin to understand or respect the emotions and reasoning of a woman. The judges and prison authorities both, treat you like an irrational child. They make you doubt your ability to think and act on your own. So they perpetuate and intensify the general idea of women in this society; they just replace your husband's or father's authority with an even more destructive authority.

In jail, women face another form of brutality - that of the sadistic matrons. These inhuman, lackey beasts, satisfy themselves daily by dishing out sexual abuse and giving mental and physical beatings to the prisoners. The matrons use these forms of discipline to break a woman's self-dignity. Sometimes you will be brought to the head matron to apologize for shit like, 'I'm sorry I started that fight', etc. They never ask what really started the fight in the first place because they're usually the ones who provoked it. And so all you do is hate the other girl more and nothing changes.

But the real horror that sisters face in jail can only be told by the sisters themselves and here are a few accounts:

GENEVA

'A lot of girls were there cause they were runaways like me. But there were also a lot there just cause their parents didn't want to be hassled with kids, or else they didn't have enough money to feed them, or else the jails or other juvenile homes were too crowded. In this place, you had to go to school from 7:30 to 4:00 every day. You can't take any work out of the school room, so if you don't finish in class, you get marks against you. Five marks and they put you in solitary. In your room, they allow you I book at a time - a nurses story book - or something like that. You must write your parents every day. Lights go out every night at 9:30. There are about 14 beds in each room and if one girl messed up, the whole cell was punished. The girls really had to stick together.

But there's alot of racial shit. The jail divides whites and blacks into different rooms. But if there's white girls in with the blacks, they are always a minority. If they don't do what the black girls say, they get the shit beat out of them, because the black girls stick together. In fact, the matrons get a lot of the fights started in the first place.

I escaped from there, but got caught because I went home and my parents turned me in. They held me until the cops came to get me. I was sent back to the home, and broke out again. This time I got as far as San Francisco. I couldn't get a job doing anything, so I became a prostitute to support myself. I got VD several times, shot drugs, and almost freaked on acid. Somehow the cops caught up with me and busted me again for runaway. This time I was put in a mental institution.'

(A lot of women have ended up in mental hospitals - which are another form of prison - because they can't 'adjust.' Mental hospitals are similar to jails, except that there is never any definite sentence; you could stay forever.)

MENTAL HOSPITAL IN DESPLAINES

'They said we were crazy anyway, so it didn't matter what happened to us. They used that phrase a lot just to make you feel like an idiot, and to degrade you in front of the others. We also had school (or what they called school anyway.) But all it was meant to do was teach us basket weaving and to let out hostilities inside us. But everytime someone would scream or talk back to a matron, they'd take her out of the class immediately, so that after a while no one said anything at all. After 'school' we were put into a big room and we were allowed to walk freely around and talk and do just about anything we wanted. This room is where we stayed most of the day and each of us were called from the room once a week and taken to the shrink. He was a sex maniac, and always tried to molest us. He tried everything he could before we started screaming or yelling at him. Then we were escorted back to the big room where we waited for them to take us back to our room and lock us up until the next day.'

(The last we heard, this sister escaped again. No matter what the pigs have tried - this sister's spirit lives on.)

RIDGEWAY HOSPITAL

'Ridgeway was really a bummer. Their idea of medical care was shooting up with thorazine or some other powerful drug to keep us quiet. Everytime a sister would question a matron, she got either locked up, beaten up, or shot up with those drugs. When they give you shots, man, you can't do anything. You can't walk, eat, shit, talk or anything. And it really messed your head - you feel like there is no way to defend yourself. When I was there, they had one chic on thorazine for about a month. Another way they deal with you is tieing you down - sometimes up to 24 hours. You're tied down so tight that the circulation in your arms and legs is completely cut off. After a while I knew I was gonna crack up if I had to take any more of this torture. So I escaped - though I knew that if I got caught, I'd go to Geneva (because it was her third escape.) I figured nothing could be as bad as Ridgeway.

ANOTHER WOMEN'S JAIL AND HOME

Another example of the atrocities committed against our sisters in jail came out in a story from a woman who had gotten married at the age of 14 when she found out that she was pregnant. She and her husband lived together for 4 years, but the pressures on her got to be too great to handle. Her old man broke her arm once, when she went shopping without his permission and spent too much. Another time, she got pissed and threw a vase at him. For that he busted her skull. So she split out and the pigs chased her to the next state. They sent her up for I year for desertion.

To rehabilitate her (and cure her social disease), the prison authorities saw fit to give her the same daily workout she had had at home. She had a rigid schedule and hard work in the prison garden, but nothing else to do with her life. And of course, she was denied seeing her children or do anything else enjoyable. Consequently, she got into a fight with one of the guards and was forced to move to another women's 'home' where they put everyone from TB patients, to prisoners, to mentally ill people. This is where she completed her sentence.

Rising Up Angry will continue to look into prison conditions of women, so that we can start doing something about it. We want to free all prisoners from every jail, prison, or mental institution, because the treatment they are receiving in these holes is insulting to any human being; the lowest, rottenest, tortures are invented to deprive women of the most basic necessities. And the so-called crimes committed by these sisters are for the most part, acts of survival. They are only part of the general picture of this society.

LOS SIETE FREE

Six of our beautiful revolutionary warriors are back on the streets with us. Right On! After spending 18 months in jail, Bebe Melendey, Mario and Tony Martinez, Nelson Rodriguez and Gary Lescallet (called Los Siete de la Raza - the 7 of the race) have been aquitted of charges of murder and attempted murder. They were busted on these trumped up charges because they were moving in a revolutionary fashion in their neighborhood, called the Mission district, in San Francisco and the pigs wanted them out of the way.

In case you don't remember, here's what happened: some brothers were moving a TV and other furniture into one of their cribs. Along came two racist plaindothes pigs, Joe Brodnick and Paul McGoran, who were well known for their brutality. These pigs accussed the brothers of robbery and attempted to arrest them. Well, the brothers weren't going for it - and a fight started. When it was over - pig Brodnik lay dead, killed by his partner's gun. Pig McGoran, a known drunk, lay on the sidewalk badly wounded. The brothers involved, split, but seven Latino leaders (Los Siete) were immediately charged with murder by the San Francisco pig department. The pigs had no evidence against the accussed - they just names 7 brothers they wanted to get off the streets.

So the Latino people of the Mission, formed an organization called Los Siete de le Raza, to free these brothers and to build the revolution in their cimmunity. This organization has a free breakfast for children program, free clinic, free legal program and a newspaper. Because of the power of Los Siete and the people who stuck with the brothers, all this time and focused so much attention and energy on the case and the outasight revolutionary lawyers who handled the case, the jury was convinced that the brothers didn't kill pig Brodnik. The defense showed that pig McGoran was a lying drunken racist pig and that he was drunk at the scene and shot his partner by mistake and then tired to cover up for it by liyng in court. The defense showed McGorna's true nature when it pointed out that in June 1967, McGoran's wife Jane, filed a complaint against him for beating her. Another witness told how in 1966, McGoran (who stands 6' 4") was smashing a kids head (who stood about 5' 4") against a car and when some people tried to stop him, McGoran whipped out his gun and shouted 'anybody interfere and I'll shoot.' There were lots of charges like this against McGoran so no jury could believe his piggish lies. Another interesting thing is that dead pig Brodniks niece, Colleen Crosby, was so convinced of the brothers innocence, that she now works for Los Siete's Defense.

Even though the brothers are out, it doesn't mean that they got justice. (Think of how many people you know who got framed, but no one built an organization to free them--so they're doing time now.) They still face charges of armed robbery and car theft in San Mateo and burglary in San sisco--all growing out of the same case. So there is over 35 thousand dollars tied up in bail money for that and one of the seven, Gio Lopez, has never been caught and is still a fugitive. As defense attorney, Charles Garry, told the jury before they acquitted the brothers, "But no matter what you do, my clients will not get justice. They've spent 17 months in prison and you can't give that back to them. No one's going to say to these beautiful defendants, 'we're sorry we invaded your lives and locked you up at a time when you and your brothers were studying and going to college...'

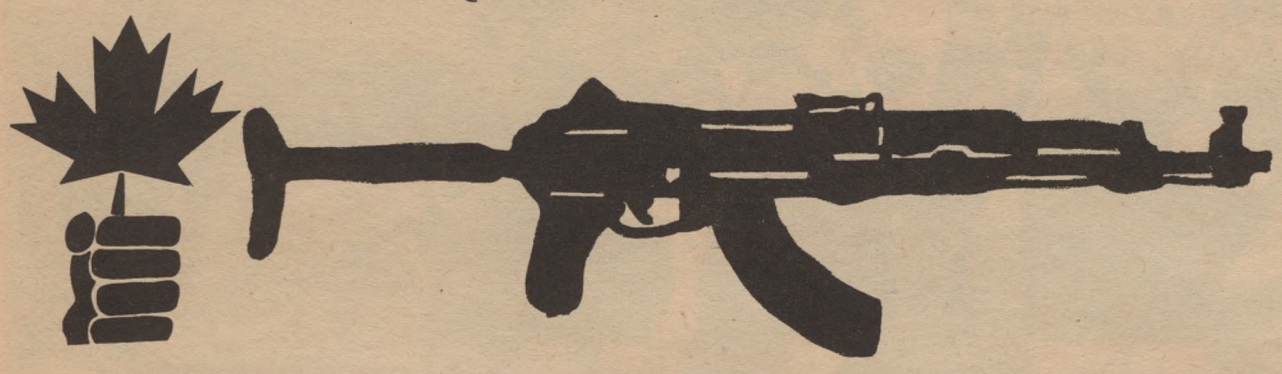
And just because they're out on the streets, doesn't mean that they are free. The Mission is still a slum, the people are still hungry, and the same pigs (minus one) are out in the hood. Like the day the brothers were acquitted, a pig car stopped in front of the Los Siete office - a pig got out and threw a bottle through the window. The same shit is still coming down.

But that's what the revolution is about. Welcome back to the streets, brothers.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE
DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIGS

"Working people of Quebec, begin today to take back what belongs to you; take yourselves what is yours. You alone know your factories, your machines, your hotels, your universities, your unions; do not wait for a miracle organization."

From the manifesto of the FLQ
Quebec Liberation Front



QUEBEC

The wrath of the people: Quebec, 1967

'The FLQ is not the Messiah, nor a modern-day Robin Hood. It is a group of working people of Quebec who are commited to do everything they can for the people of Quebec to take their destiny into their own hands'

For the second time in a year, Canadian federal troops have been moved into Quebec. The Canadian government, a D.C. puppet, is attempting to crush the liberation struggle being waged by the people of Canada s second largest, and poorest, province. This time the vanguard FLQ (Quebec Liberation Front) seized high official Crosse, the British Trade Commissioner in Montreal, demanded release of twenty-three FLQ political prisoners and the rehiring of striking workers; when their demands were refused, they uped the ante, grabbing another political big shot, Quebec Labor Minister Laporte. When Prime Minister Trudeau, a decadent millionaire chump who used to jet set the world, dating American chumps like Barbara Streisand, sent in troops to impose a reign of terror, the FLQ cell holding Laporte carried out a political assassination. They offied the pig Laporte. These revolutionary acts are a new level in the struggle by the nearly 6 million French speaking people of Quebec against the increased and continued exploitation at the hands of the English Canadians and their American Imperialist backers.

To understand the current struggle, some background facts are necessary. Canada is a colony of the United States. The economy is nearly completely controlled by the U.S. business interests. In Quebec, a colony inside a colony, U.S. interests control 90% of the economy. The French, 85% of Quebec and one third of all Canadians, have the highest unemployment rate, the least education and get 20% less pay for the same jobs as English speaking Canadians. The people of Quebec are tired of paying taxes to the Federal government in Ottawa that finances industrialization in areas of English speaking populations. Most of these taxes build arms plants that produce weapons for the world defense of American Imperialism. The Quebecois have been resisting such domination since their original conquest 200 years ago by the English.

A Nationalist movement, demanding separation from the rest of Canda, has gained increased momentum in Quebec during the past ten years. Like all nationalist movements, including the U.S.'s struggle against the British, there are reactionary and revolutionary aspects to it. The Bourgoise (rich) French of Quebec want independence so that they can run things and get richer exploiting the people without non-French competition. These chumps are not into serving the people and building a revolutionary society. On the other hand, the revolutionary nationalists, of which the FLQ is the left wing, want independence and to build a revolutionary socialist society.

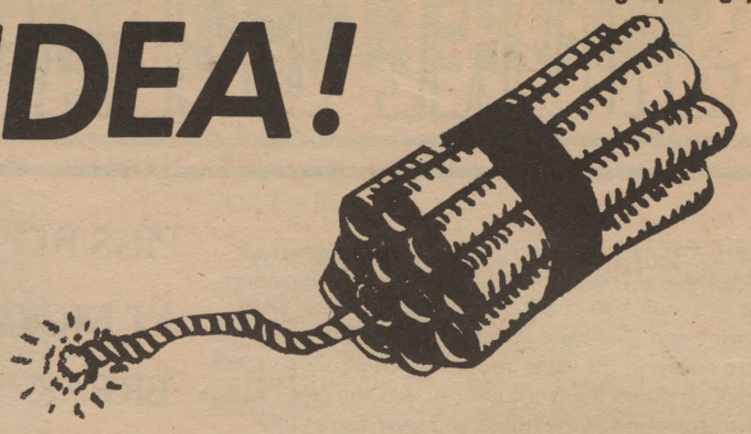
The FLQ began by bombing Canadian and U.S. businesses that ripped off the people. They expropriated money for their activities from banks and finance companies. Very simply, the FLQ is a clandestine (secret) movement whose tactics are urban guerilla warfare. They are a revolutionary and communist movement that calls for the national liberation of Quebec, the institution of a socialist society, a nationalization (take over by the people) of all industry, the smashing of Imperialism, and an end to Quebec's colonial (exploited from the outside) status.

The government's response to the revolutionary action of the poeple has been to increase their already rampant terrorism of the masses of people. Ten thousand pigs were unleashed, staging several thousand raids, and busting between 400-600 people. Since the War Measures Act, that allowed the government to send in troops disbands all rights, these prisoners can't even inform their families and loved ones they've been cracked. Among those arrested were candidates for election from a separatist party (FRAP) that was given good chances of defeating Montreal's version of Mayor Daley and his puppet chumps, the head of the 67,000 member Montreal Central Council of the National Trade Unions, and the executive director of the Montreal Construction Workers Union.

Laporte is dead; his body found in a trunk one mile from an army base. Striking blind, as is their nature, the pigs can't find Crosse. They claim to have caught one person involved in the Laporte kidnapping. There is currently a news blackout here in America as to what s happening. The government, refusing the FLQ demands only said they would review the many times denied parole applications of 5 of the 23 political prisoners, and permit the FLQ cells passage out of the country. Students, whose schools and universities have been closed by the government, have taken to their neighborhoods to rap about the FLQ Manifesto.

The Manifesto has been read over TV and radio. and printed in two daily papers despite Trudeau's efforts to stop it. It is the spirit of the FLQ Manifesto that has the Canadian pigs and the super pigs shaking. For the manifesto speaks to the people, to the workers and the young, and it is the people, with revolutionary direction to their just outrage, who will put Trudeau and all the Capitalist and Imperialist pigs he works for in the grave.

A DYNAMITE IDEA!



Nixon's been out around the country giving support to other Republicans who were up for election. People in San Jose, California, got it together on October 29th and stoned the pigs president with rocks and eggs when he gave the crowd the peace sign. Well, the elections are over and this year, like last year and every year, the fascists won even before the people went to the polls. It's set up that way and the people's struggle never takes place in the voting booth. We fight in the streets

NEW YORK. - The Queens Courthouse and House of Detention were blown up just a week after a prison riot there. The prisoners demanded that the inhuman conditions of living be ended, that the high bail on prisoners be ended and that sister Afeni Shakur, a political prisoner and a member of the Panther 21, be set free. The Panther 21 are Black Panthers from New York who have all been charged with a ridiculous bomb plot in order to rip them off from the people and stop their revolutionary work.

NATIONAL

In addition to the Federal Building in Rochester, New York, a pig station and 2 armories in New York City, the Bank of America in Irvine, California — hundreds of other enemy targets have been attacked, bombed or burned, all over the country.

MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA - The Marin County Courthouse, where Jonathan Jackson, William Christmas and Ruchell McGee were killed in their attempt to escape and kidnap the judge, was blown up. Long live the spirit of Jonathan Jackson.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON R.O.T.C. is where pig officers are trained to lead our brothers to their death in Nam. In Vietnam these officers quite often get shot in the back by hip G.I.'s or they get shot in the head by the hip Cong. Well, at the University of Washington in Seattle, the R.O.T.C. building was blown up.

DETROIT, MICHIGAN - In a shootout in Detroit, between Panthers and pigs, 1 pig, Glen Smith, was killed and another pig was wounded.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS. The Harvard Center for international affairs was blown up by a collective of women in solidarity with Angela Davis. The center was a C.I.A. front that did war research and also kept contact with, and gave money to all Asian and Latin American students going to school here who could give information on revolutionary movements in their own countries.

SANTA BARBARA, The National Guard, the government reinforcements for the city pigs, had their armory blown up.

CHICAGO- The Haymarket pig statue was blown away for the second time in a year. It began a fall offensive of bombings and attacks on pigs all over the country.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE

★ STONE GREASE GRAPEVINE

PIGS RUN AMUCK AT DICKENS AND DRAKE BREAK IN, BEAT BROTHER.

The Roberts family is the latest victim of a fascist attack by the Shakespeare pig department. Late Friday Denny and Gail Roberts and their two children, Dennis and Mike, were at home. Denny and Gail were in bed watching TV and the two kids were asleep in the other room. All of a sudden someone began kicking down the front door--it was the pigs. About 15 of them had surrounded the house and swarmed in like maggots. They broke the front window and kicked in the front door and stuck a gun in Denny's face as he lay in bed. Then these pigs went into the room where the two little boys were sleeping and stuck a gun in the kids' face. When Gail demanded to know why, the pigs said someone could be hiding in there. It was lucky neither of the boys made a move, because the trigger happy pig probably would have shot one of them.

Then the pigs dragged Denny out to the car and when they got him in the car, the three pigs began beating him. Of course he was handcuffed and these maggots were using their billy clubs. They drove through the alleys steadily beating him until they got to the pig pen. Then they took him upstairs and told him that he had assaulted an officer earlier that evening (a pure lie). Then the pigs proceeded to beat him so bad that he began throwing up blood.

After a few hours he was taken to the hospital because he was beaten so bad. The doctors told him he might have some broken ribs and they told him to come back the next day for X-rays. The next day Denny went to court at 26th and California with another brother , Mike, who had also been brutally beaten by the pigs——for the same charges-Assault on a pig and resisting arrest. Denny's ransom was $2500 and he couldn't make bond. So when he was taken to the House of Correction he told them he was supposed to go back to the hospital. They told him nothing was wrong with him—even though he was still vomiting blood.

Meanwhile, back at 26th and California, after court, two sisters—Joanne and Chris— who were there to bail brother Mike out, were busted in the court building for the same charges—battery on a pig. All of this points out what really happened on Friday night. It's clear that a pig got his ass kicked in Shakespeare district—supposedly he had 10 stitches in his head and a concussion. But its also clear that the pigs don't know who did it and are busting anyone in the neighborhood that they don't like, whether they were anywhere near the scene. And they are using the stone—fascist brutality that they are known for.

All of these sisters and brothers are out on bond now. And so its obvious that fascist tactics won't intimidate Denny and Gail Roberts, Mike, Joanne, or Chris or any righteous brothers and sisters. It only makes us more determined in our struggle and convinces us that we've got to seize the time and intensify the struggle.

RISING UP ANGRY KILLER RADIO KICKED OF AIR

Radio Free Chicago, Chicago's only radical radio show, has been temporarily shut down. Until recently, Rising Up Angry had worked with Radio Free Chicago and did a 2 hour show weekly. Avaricious pig 'Uncle Scrooge' Wheeler, owner of WEAW, had one of his bootlicking flunkeys tape an hour of Angry's last show and when this chump heard Angry's rap, he freaked. This pervert would do anything for a buck, but since Angry threatens this capitalists existence, he couldn't let it slide. He called the RFC people (excluding Angry) in and played the tape and told them they were off the air. He said it was against FCC (fascist communications control) rules to advocate revolution and killing pigs on the air. However, it seems funn that he allows Carl 'Holy Moses' McIntire (who is on after RFC) to advocate the mass killing of the Vietnamese people on the air.

The RUA show was a people's show. We played underground soul, blues and country music. Many people from RUA took part, brothers and sisters from C&D, Fullerton and Pulaski, Barry and Paulina, Southwest Side, Lane and Schurz were featured regularly. We guess 'Uncle Scrooge' couldn't dig a people's show.

Radio Free Chicago will be allowed back on WEAW, but Angry is forbidden to have air time, thanks to pig Wheeler and his flunkies. It won't be long Wheeler, and Angry will even the score. The people will have there own radio station with no hassle from pigs. Ed Wheeler, the people will deal with you and yours - we'll take your FCC rule book, your Carl McIntire tapes and your fat wallet and stuff them down your motherfuckin throat.

SEIZE THE TIME!!!!

TO OUR CORP BROTHERS FROM REVOLUTIONARY SISTERS.

You can't fight pigs when you're fucked up on downers. You can't do anything.

In the summer, when everyone from the neighborhood was into downers, we thought it would just be a temporary thing. A new high. But now its the end of November and many brothers are strung out.

Brothers, we love you, but the pigs hate you and want to see you strung out. That's why when they bust you, they don't confiscate your downers. They want to see you fucked up, so they can beat the shit out of you, like they did to brother Angel in September. They want to see you fucked up, so you can't work for the people and fight the pigs. They want the poor people kept poor and powerless, so they can keep exploiting you and if they see a spot of togetherness and are afraid of the power of the people, they flood the neighborhood with downers. To keep you down.

One of our brothers is trying to be a revolutionary, but is so fucked up on bops he cannot function. And that's the way they want it.

Now he's in the House charges with murder. That's the way the pigs want it too.

Brothers--can't you see, these downers are going to fuck each and every one of you up so you'll be in jail too, for much heavier charges than possession of downers.

Don't kid yourself, they don't want you in school or working, or strong enough to fight them. They want you in jail and in Augustana Hospital ODing. But until they see you there, they will settle for seeing you in the playlot receiving pleasure from watching you die--slowly but surely. You have to love each other to kick the habit. We love you brothers and want to see you alive and fighting the pigs.

Power to the Brothers. Death to the Real Enemy--the Fascist Pigs!

SOUTHWEST SIDE ANGRY BROTHER DEFENDS PEOPLE DEFENDS PEOPLE WITH GUNS

A few days before Halloween I was rapping to some doopers in my good about getting together and fighting the pigs. The chumps laughed, and told me that they were going to bomb this black family on 86th and Marshfield. So on Halloween I got some people I know to get some pieces together, and come down to guard the people's house against these dooper punks. The doopers showed up that night in the alley behind the house with their bombs, so we pulled out our guns and told them to get the fuck out of there before we blew their asses off.

I've never seen a gang of doopers split so fast. These racist fools must not be left alone to do their thing on Black people! They have seen that when the people are in trouble, a revolutionary won't stop serving the people because of race.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

ANGRY REVOLUTIONARY BROTHERS INVADE SCHURZ TO BRING THE TRUTH.

Rising Up Angry, being a revolutionary organization concerned with changing the oppressive conditions that the masses live under here in America, are actively engaged in the struggle for a Revolutionary People's Constitution.

We know that one place they teach lies about the bogus old constitution is in the schods. So some of us from inside, and some of us from outside, all of us from RUA decided to take revolutionary information into one of the classes at Schurz High School that teaches a false history of the United States.

On Thursday, November 19th, some of the brothers from Angry, met brothers from Schurz during lunch and proceeded to a history class. On the way, we passed out Angrys When we got to the class, a brother informed the teacher that we were going to make an announcement. We told the class that the old constitution is bogus, that the people need a revolutionary constitution and to get it means fighting to make a revolution. That's what Angry is about. We passed out papers, pamphlets on the Revolutionary Constitution called, 'We the People', and then said the class should work out with the teacher, a good day for us to come back for a longer discussion.

As one of us took pictures of the revolutionary brothers and sisters giving the fist, we thanked everyone, including the teacher, and left, heading for other places to rap with more of our brothers and sisters.

RISING UP ANGRY DEATH TO THE OPPRESSOR ★

BEL-AIRS SPAULDING & ARMITAGE

In the beginning of November, one of the brothers was waiting for a bus and the pigs stopped and told him to get in the car. He said, 'For what, I'm waiting for a bus.' 'Fuck you punk get in the car." So the brother gets in the car and says, "What you busting me for?" The fascist pigs says CAR THEFT. The brother says, "How the fuck you getting me for car theft?" The pig didn't answer. When they finally wrote the arrest report it turned out it was because the brother had black hair and was wearing a black leather jacket. Fuck you Pigs!

PIG SHOT BY WIFE

We say a pig is a pig is a pig. And that means that these low natured beasts often loose all traces of humanity and don't know how to treat anyone decently. Recently a pig from Wentworth district was shot and killed by his wife. We don't know the details, but the male chauvinism and brutality of most pigs could very easily drive anyone to shoot them. Right on to the pigs wives who liberate themselves by offing their husbands.

DEATH TO ALL FASCIST PIGS
BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY!

KIMBALL & ARMITAGE

Last month some of the brothers went to court for hitting a pig in the head with a bottle. The pig judge kept continuing the case and then finally we went to trial. Since the pigs really had no evidence whatsoever, they dropped the first three charges and busted us on the last one which was resisting arrest (which was a false charge anyway.) They were content with getting the four hundred dollars in bond for the four of us and putting the other two on supervision. To tell you the truth, it was worth $100 to hit that fucking pig in the head. RIGHT ON!

KILL THE PIGS!

CHICANO YOUTH ORGANIZATION - BOWEN

On November 20th, 300 brothers and sisters from Bowen High School, presented 15 demands to the administration! These demands were aimed at making their education a practical one and a truthful one! To back up their demands, they marched through South Chicago and held a rally in Bassemen Park. The date is an important one because it marks the anniversery of the beginning of the revolution in Mexico.

When Rising Up Angry went down to Bowen, the people dug the paper and as a brother told us, 'Bowen should burn down if the students don't get control of their own education.'

SISTER POWER AT LONGWOOD

The girls at Longwood High School put together a talent show based on "women" this month. First they had a scene from the country with square dancing. Then the girls go to the city. Then they have a scene on Women's Liberation in which the girls are all dressed in mini skirts, and shouting weird slogans to the audience. One sister didn't think that mini skirts were very liberating, so instead she put on pants and ran across the stage giving the first and shouting, "To Love We Must Fight! To Love We Must Fight! Rising Up Angry!"

ROOSEVELT

Some of the people from Angry have been going to the different high schools around the city in order to pass out revolutionary literature and to rap about Angry and the revolution. When we were up at Roosevelt, we went into the Huddle, a hangout across the street from the school. As we were passing out Angry's and rapping to some of the right on sisters and brothers, the manager came up and told us to leave. But the people in the Huddle told the manager to lighten up - that they wanted to hear about the revolution. Faced with the power of the people, the chump-manager had to let us stay and do our thing. Right on to the sisters and brothers from Roosevelt.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

PAULINA & BARRY COMMUNITY

The brothers and sisters of P.B.C. have given the pigs another token of our appreciation. The new pig in our Hood tried to bust some brothers and sister with bullshit charges one night and got a lot of people pissed off. So one brother seized the time by picking up a broken branch of a tree, and he threw it at the pig. It hit the pig in the head and knocked him down, but when he got up he just got in the pig car and took off.

More good news. One of the brothers in our neighborhood, who had a lot of court dates against him, has beat all but one small one. We are all glad that most of the truth came through for him. And what made everything even better--some of our people who moved out of Chicago came back last week to visit us. It turned into kind of a re-union cause some of the people who stopped coming around for a while showed up. We all dug each other and exchanged addresses so we can keep in touch.

Revolutionary news from our neighborhood will travel to others to keep our spirit strong enough to make a hard blow towards the pigs!!!

DEATH TO THE PIGS!

NUCCIO CONVICTED AGAIN

We all know that there's no justice in the pig courts, and once again we see a blatant example of this. Take the case of pig Richard Nuccio, formerly of Town Hall. In June, 1968 he shot Ron Nelson, a brother from Lakeview, in the back. He was convicted of murder in this case, let out on appeal and became a right wing hero. Now this slimy pig has been convicted of murder again and again he is out on the streets, free on appeal! If one of us was even accused of murder - much less convicted - we'd never see the outside of the House of Correction. (We can't even get out when we're charged with disorderly) The only way to get justice with these maggots is in the streets!

NUCCIO - DON'T EVER TURN YOUR BACK!

FULLERTON & PULASKI

The people around here have been digging the Rising Up Angry Radio Show on Sundays at 12:30 on 105.1 FM. One nite while in the Gossage Grill, we persuaded one of the Gossage Grillmen (who is hip that his boss is a chump) to turn the show on the Gossage Radio. Things got a bit uptight, however, when it was announced that Don 'sweet lips nutmeg' Helmig, owner of the Gossage, was ripped off for $1000 during the week.

We have declared a piece of land, liberated. The huge front lawn in front of the American Decal Co. will be known as Lin Piao Park. Since this land is not used, we felt it would be in order to turn it over to the people for recreation. However, the 14th District and Milwaukee Road pigs don't see things our way. As usual, these trick motherfuckers stick with big corporations instead of the common people. Anyone hanging around the park is either chased away or busted for trespassing. It won't be long, pigs, until our neighborhood moves to a higher level. Lin Piao Park will be liberated if we have to dye it red with your putrid blood. As for you pig Helmig, there ain't a hole in Babylon low enough to bury your stinkin' ass. Looks like you'll be a bonfire in the park chump. Pigs - we dance at the news of your deaths.
LONG LIVE LIN PIAO PARK!

LANE TEACHES RACISM

Many of the teachers at Lane are doing a lot to keep brothers fighting each other. By letting the students know that they favor racism. Some of the students do their best to let the teachers know how much they hate blacks, and some teachers even give their support to these pupils. The administration showed that they also want to fuck around third world and white revolutionaries. Two brothers at Lane that put out an underground paper 'The Cosmic Frog' were suspended for writing their true opinion of the school. Pegleg Penfield and the others who were involved in this so-called act of discipline are being brought to court for their crime which was 'violation of free press and speech.' All the brothers at Lane should realize that the only way to deal with the situation is to get organized within the school.

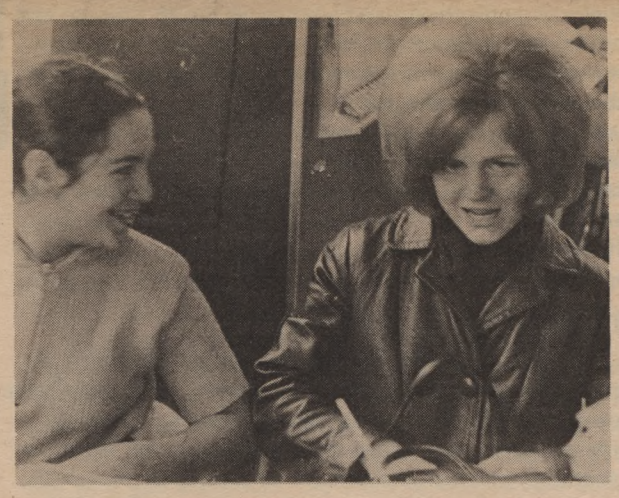
ANGRY RAPS AT LANE: School Sends Pig

Two brothers from Angry came out to Lane to rap to a class about Angry, the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention, and the revolution in general. This put the school so uptight that they had a plainclothes pig sit in the class. That's o.k. though, because we'll rap our shit anywhere, to our people. The pigs don't scare us because there are more of us than there are of them. We dig coming to any school where people have questions or just want to rap about the times that are 'a changin'.
RIGHT ON TO THE REVOLUTIONARY BROTHERS AT LANE!



POWER TO THE SISTERS: Angry at Madonna

A sister from Angry went out to Madonna to rap to the sisters about the Constitutional Convention. There were some out-a-sight raps about what's coming down in the city and in the black struggle.

A lot of questions were asked and because of the lack of time, they weren't all answered. Sisters at Madonna can find most of the answers they need from Rising Up Angry and the Black Panther Paper. Remember, what you know-teach. What you need to know - learn!!

SUBURBAN BROTHER VAMPS JOCK

There has been some shit going on at New Trier East. The people of New Trier East hadn't been together lately and chump jocks were fucking around the freaks. It started when the usual jagoff jock mentality shoved a pie in a freak's face. So some freaks went up to the table where the jocks were sitting. Rapping got nowhere, wo a brother who came to New Trier from Senn got sick of the bullshit and shoved a cake, with gravy over it, into the chump jock's face. The jock started fighting the brother, but the brother beat the jock's ass. Since then the freaks and blacks are getting together and the jocks are hiding. This shows what happens when 1) the people get together, and 2) people stand up to pigs.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE WHO ARE TOGETHER! ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!!

ANOTHER DEAD PIG

Pig Nicholas A. Zuccaro was found dead in front of his crib on Friday, November 6th. We don't feel bad that this chump, who had been a pig for 13 years, is dead. When a pig is repped off, our struggle for freedom is intensified and our goal of liberation is nearer. If pigs don't want to be targets for oppressed people's anger, they should quit their jobs and join the people's army.

Do you know where a pig lives?

ANOTHER MURDER AT COOK COUNTY

Anyone who's been in Cook County knows how rotten the place is - bad food, rats and roaches, brutal guards, no recreation and rotten medical care. The county jail doesn't rehabilitate anyone - it brutalizes people. The latest victim of this pig pen is Tyrone Butler, who was murdered by Dr. English. Tyrone had a heart condition, but jail officials, commonly called pigs, dogs or maggots, wouldn't allow his mother to give him any medicine. The doctors said they examined Tyrone and he was fine. Tyrone died because he didn't have his medicine. That's cold blooded murder!

TEAR THE WALL DOWN AND LET OUR SISTERS AND BROTHERS OUT!

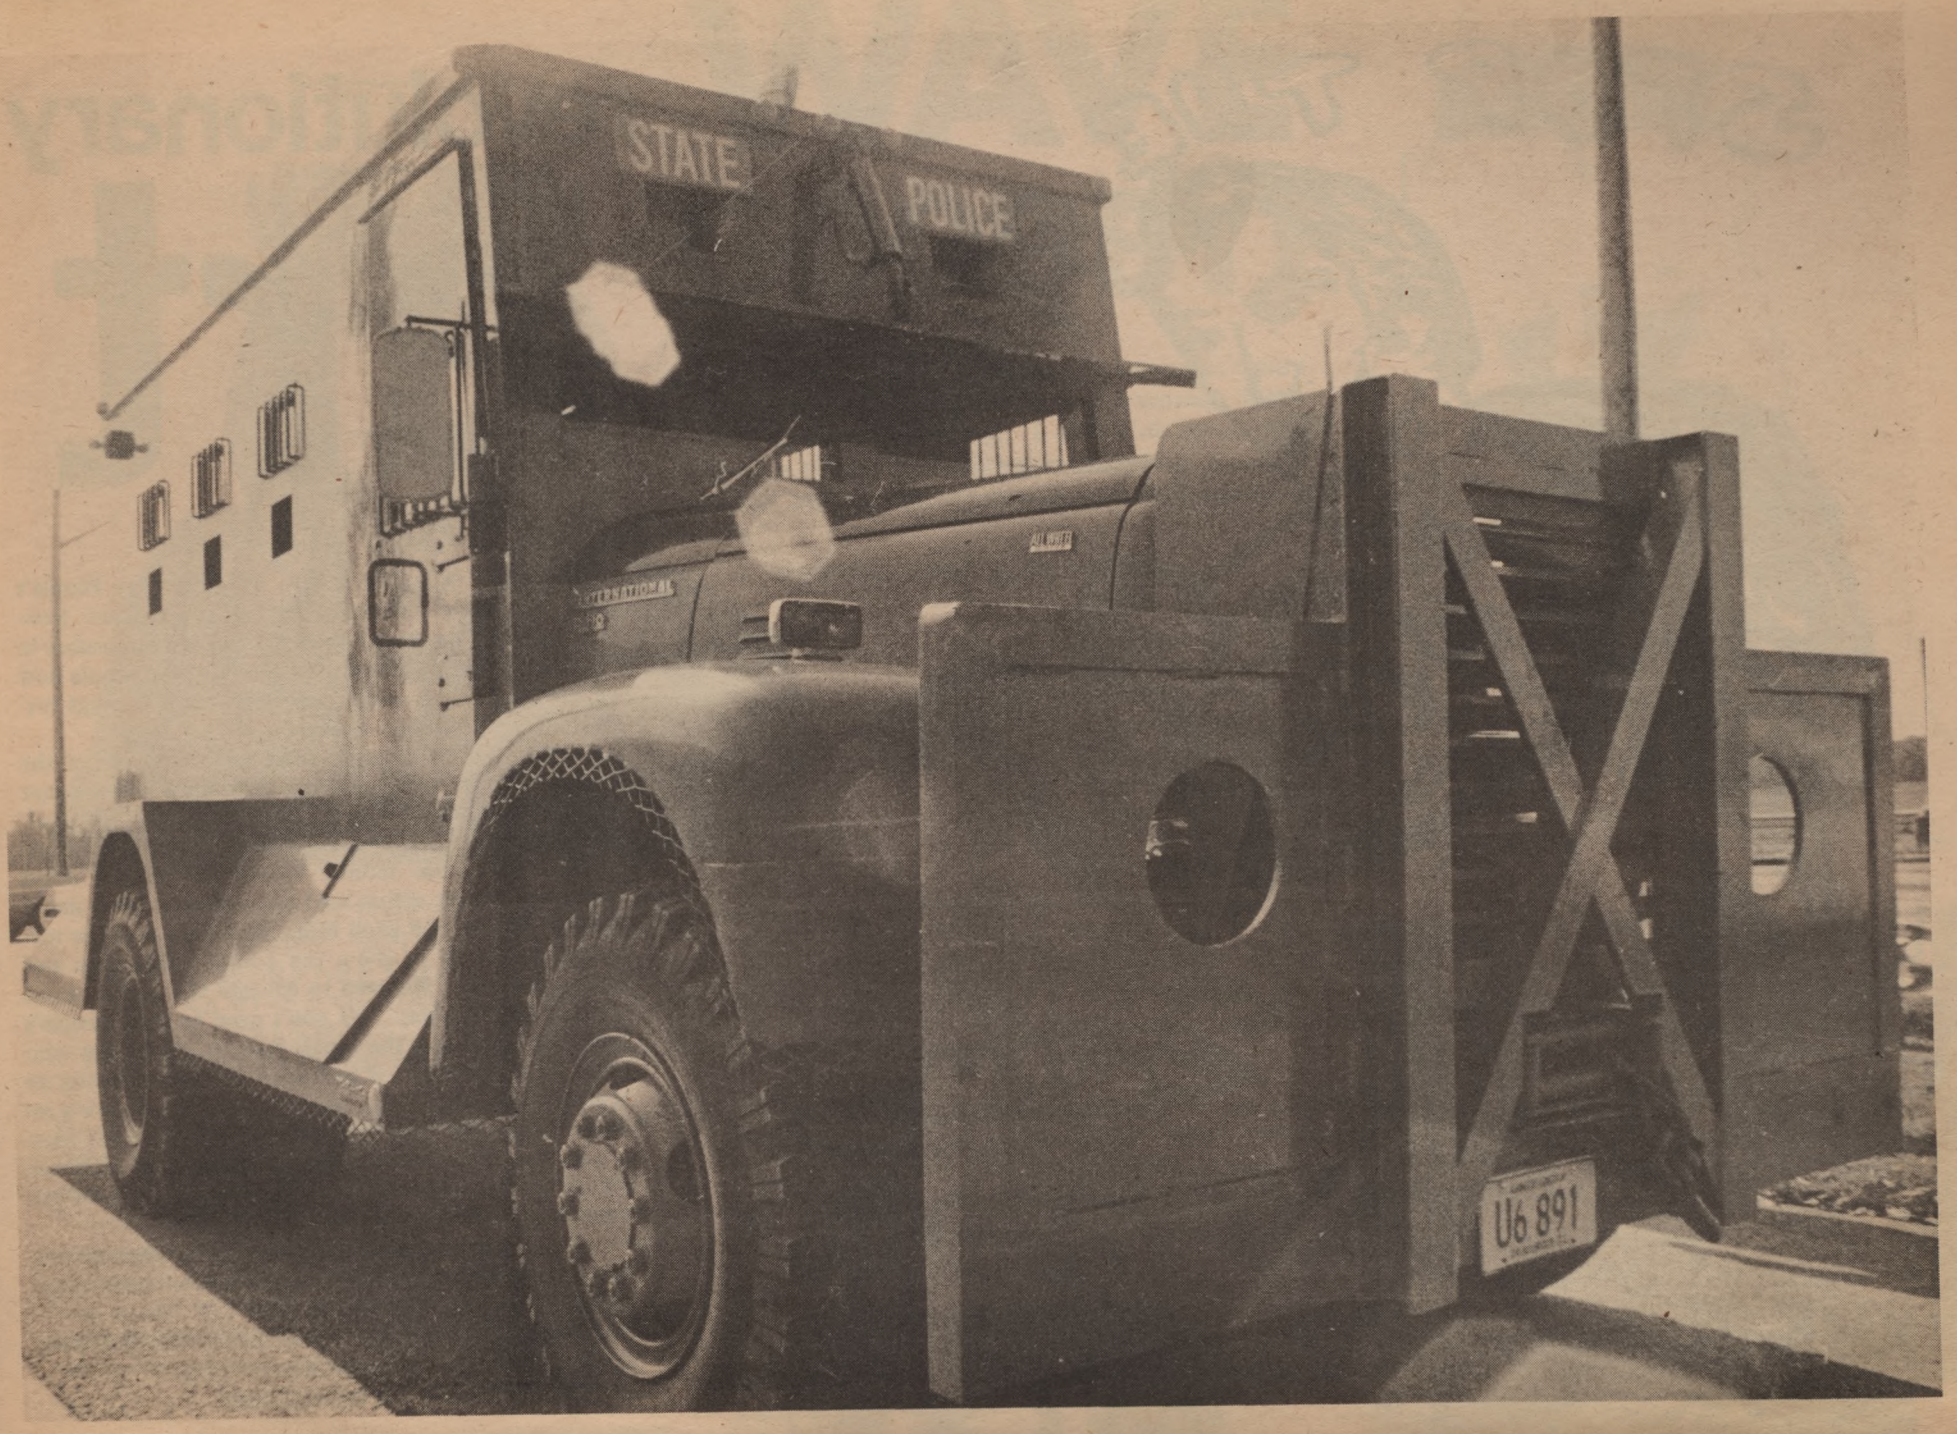
RACIST LAWLOR LEADS PEOPLE ASTRAY

His reverand chump - Francis Lawlor - and his associate chumps who have formed block clubs, have been protesting the construction of additions onto O'Toole school at 65th and Seeley. They say more blacks will come into their neighborhood if there is enough room for them in school. He and his 'clubs' try to make people afraid of blacks moving into their neighborhood. Our hoods and lives are messed up by pig politicians and realators - not black brothers and sisters. We should dig on why the black people are fighting the pigs and we should join together and join the fight.

Revolutionary brothers and sisters from the new Angry office neighborhood, on a recent trip down home.

REBELLION COMING AT COOK COUNTY

There are over 2,000 people sitting in the shithouse, called Cook County jail, who haven't even been found guilty of anything. The reason these right on sisters and brothers are being subjected to the rotten food, brutal treatment, and inhuman living conditions is because they ain't rich. Some pig accuses us of something, sets bond so high that we can't ransom ourselves out and we sure can't afford a lawyer - so we lay up at 26th and California. Well, jails all over the country are facing the wrath of the angry prisoners and Winston Moore, chump warden at Cook County, and his lackeys, are afraid it will happen there. And it will!
FREE ALL PRISONERS!



CAIRO

There has been lots of attention put on Cairo, Illinois, because people are demanding their rights. The town has been so hot in the last year and a half that four police chiefs have resigned. Cairo, is a southern Illinois town. Most of the people there are poor. While both the whites and blacks are victimized, many whites are blinded by their racism and side with the rich white businessmen who control the town. The blacks aren't much better off than before the civil war. For example, up to 2 years ago, all black people on welfare were bussed to Missouri every summer to pick cotton for 50 cents a day. If they refused, their welfare was cut off.

But the black people in Cairo, like people all over the world, started getting it together and demanding their freedom. They were not only for freedom for blacks. In the original demands of the United Front of Cairo, they called for the end of misery for poor whites also (who make up more than half the welfare roles in the county.)

In 1967, the black people in the town, with a handful of white supporters, demanded that the town council listen to their needs. The council didn't even reply. So some of the brothers and sisters decided that the pigs would only listen to action. Three lumber yards, owned by the richest racists in town, were burned down. The Mayor called it a riot. The National Guard came in and finally the council sat down with the black leaders. But a year later, poverty, racism and corruption continued as if nothing had happened. So, 15 months ago, the United Front of Cairo, started a boycott of all the downtown stores - hurting the white merchants who run the town - where it hurts most - in their pockets. Among the United Front's demands were 50% of the jobs for poor people and political power for blacks. Every Saturday afternoon, around 200 blacks - mainly the youth, march up the main street reminding the town that the boycott is in effect. And the merchants know it - virtually all blacks observe the boycott and most whites now do their shopping in near by towns because they're afraid to challenge the boycott. Many businesses have folded and the ones remaining are hurting. Panty-hose sell for 49c a pair. Electric fans that go for $14 in Chicago or Carbondale, go for $4 in Cairo.

So, faced with this solid boycott by black people, the white businessmen increased the terror they have always used to keep black people in check. Anytime the white power structure wants to terrorize the black community, it can call in the Cairo pigs, the Illinois State Troopers, even the National Guard. And they haven't hesitated to occupy the black community anytime they want.

The last couple of months there have been many blatant examples of how the white racists and government have conspired against the black people of Cairo.

Ralph Tyler Smith, darling of Nixon and Agnew, promised a meeting of the White Citizens Council that he would get federal money for the county court system to enable the county to prosecute all of the blacks who have been framed on ridiculous charges.

You should be hip to how these charges come about. All of you have probably read in the papers or heard the TV reports that black guerrillas wearing camoflauge clothes, carrying automatic weapons, attacked the Cairo pig Station. It would be out of sight if it happened, but the truth is that there were no bullet holes visible on the outside of the pig station the day after the alledged attack. Rev. Charles Koen, executive director of United Front, states that blacks were not armed or in the vicinity of the pig station. It would be physically impossible for blacks firing from the ghetto to hit the Pig Station.

Police later admitted to reporters that the attack had not occured. But the false report served its purpose. Governor Ogilvie had an excuse to send 40 white state troopers and some armored cars to Cairo on indefinite duty.

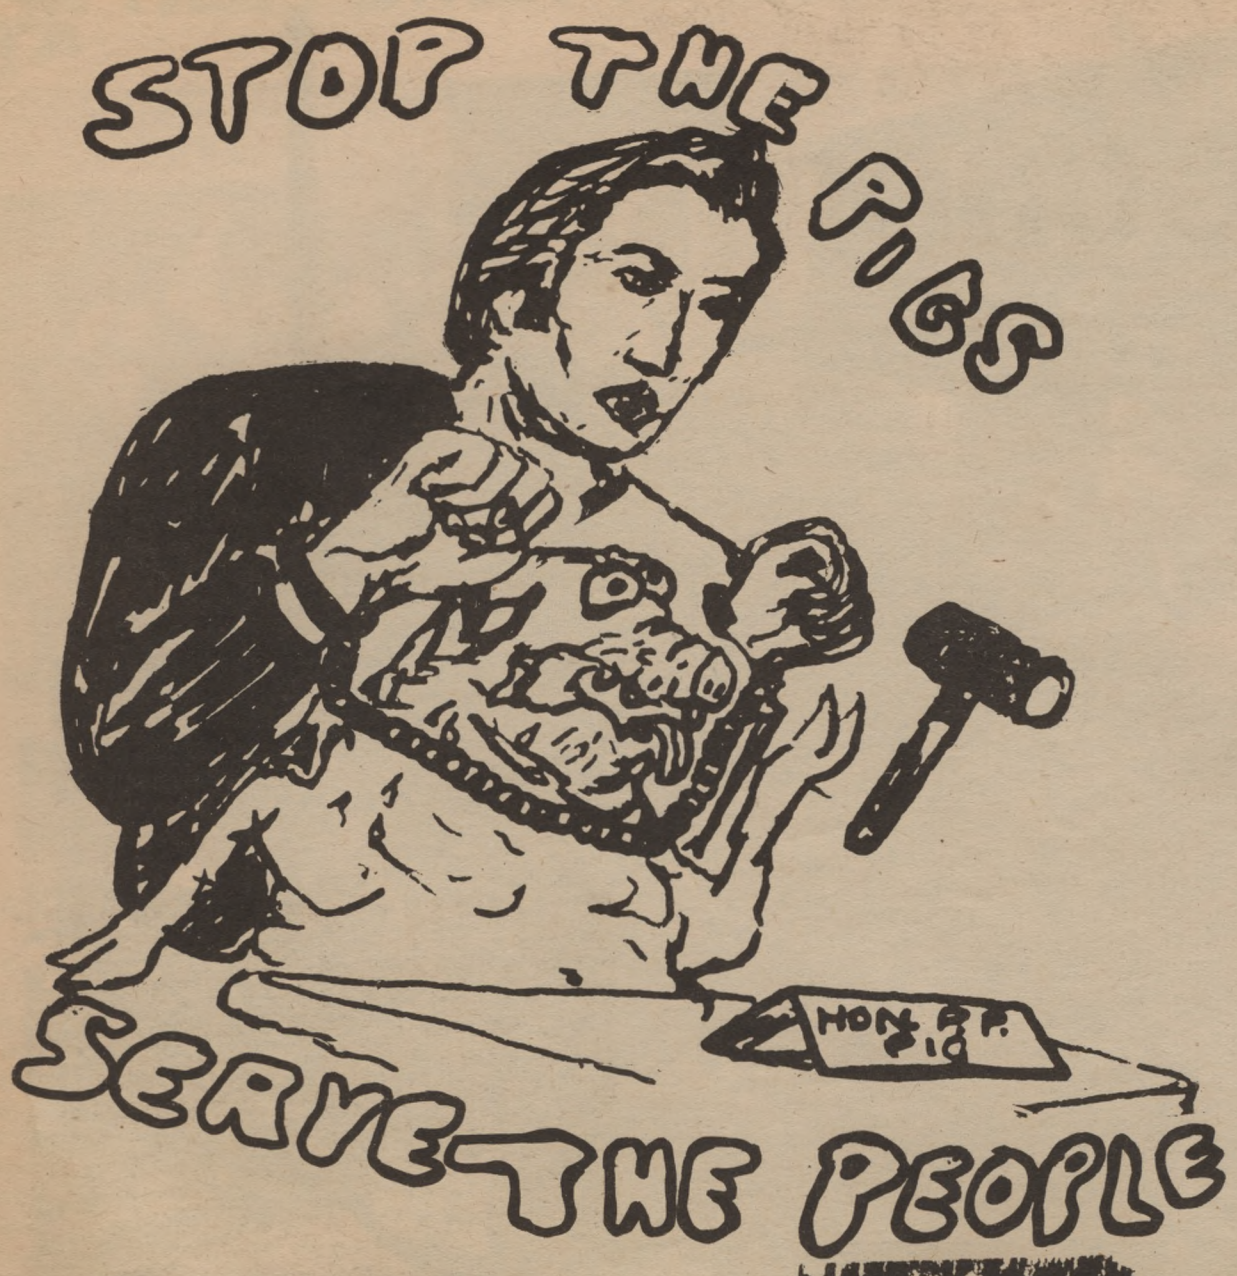
Pyramid Courts, the projects where many blacks live, is pockmarked with bullet holes from sniper fire by White Hats--a vigilante group, many of whose members are off-duty pigs.

Just two weeks ago (Nov. 9) a black soldier, home on leave, was critically wounded while visiting his family in the projects.

The offices of the United Front are also pocked marked from bullets, the angle of which shows they were shot from a turret on top of the pig station.

All of these incidents point out that the pigs winter-offensive is on. United Front people are asking for support in money and food to strengthen themselves for the fight during the long winter months ahead. They are also in contact with other black communities, such as Carbondale, which intends to start a Cairo type boycott in protest against pigs shooting up of their community. And some blacks in Cairo are firing back for according to the United Front, although the black people are peaceful, they will defend themselves.

The years of the racist pigs are coming to a dying end!



revolutionary art

Rising Up Angry is into Revolutionary People's Art. What is Revolutionary Art? It is a free art. Revolutionary art starts with the reality of the oppression in people's everyday lives and by showing the people how to struggle against their oppressors - that is what revolutionary art is about - educating the people.

As Emory Douglas, Minister of Culture of the Black Panther Party, says, 'we have to draw pictures that will inflame the masses to pick up guns against the pigs!'

The easiest way to educate the people is in a simple colorful way. Use definite figures that anyone could recognize. Bright colors used to emphasize every detail in your picture is a good idea. The main point in revolutionary art is to show the people offing pigs and seizing the time. We need to educate the people about this in a positive way. We don't need to show people's suffering - but show the people how to kill the pigs who cause their suffering. If you draw the pigs vamping on brothers and sisters - be sure to show the people's revenge. Also, use your imagination!! If you don't have a gun, use lye, poison, glass, dynamite...use whatever you've got to get rid of the pigs. Draw it - attack the fascist pigs with every stroke of the brush!

Rising Up Angry, is into printing people's revolutionary art, poetry, and also neighborhood news in the paper. So send us what you've got!

BAD TRIP INFORMATION

When one of our brothers or sisters gets into a bad trip with drugs, we have to know what to do. There's been some bad acid going around with a lot of speed and poison in it, but whether it's good or bad acid - it's still possible to get on a bad trip. We should know how to deal with - and not leave our sisters or brothers out in the cold - alone - freaking out.

There are a couple of ways to help a person down from acid. Try and make them drink orange juice with one cup of sugar mixed in - this eases tension and will probably make the person sleepy. Glutamic acid (a vitamin - it's easy to find in a health food store) or vitamin B (B3 or B12) are both good. The person has to take a lot - 5000 milligrams - so try to give them as many as possible. Dramamine is o.k. for nausea. Other than that, DO NOT GIVE THEM ANY OTHER DRUGS! Most important, you should talk to the sister or brother and tell them everything is cool. Don't leave them alone. Remember, it'll take a long time to come down so plan to talk all night.

If someone takes too many downers (yellows, reds, etc.) they may be passing out, unable to talk or wake up or having slight convulsions. The person's respiration and blood circulation have been depressed, so the best things to do are:

1. Put them in a cold shower. Change it back and forth from really hot to really cold - this stimulates their circulation.
2. Shake their whole body (not just an arm or slapping the face.)
3. Make them walk by themselves, but guide them if they can't walk alone. (Don't hold them up.)
4. Make them drink water and mustard to make them throw up. NEVER GIVE THEM SPEED TO HELP THEM OUT. It will make it worse and could kill them or make them violently sick.

I wanted to mention things like glue - the best thing to do for glue is DON'T TAKE IT! It's hard to freak on glue - but it's easy to kill yourself quick. Toluene and carbontetrachloride, especially, destroy your liver fast. Since the liver is what removes poisons from your blood, a damaged liver just lets the poison pass on through - so it goes straight to your brain. Once you've messed up your liver, your body can never guard itself against poisons - and it's a lot easier to get all kinds of poisons in your system. So toluene, glue and things like that, give you a buzz - as long as you keep on sniffing - but you're crawling to your death. The people don't need sickly, brainless bodies oozing around. This is what the pigs dig. The fascists push everything, including downers for nursery school kids, to keep us too spaced to deal with them.

WAVE GOODBYE

'I got hassled by chiefs because I wouldn't play their game. I didn't act the way a woman in the navy is supposed to act. I didn't do what they said or go by their rules and discipline. I would rather tell a chief to fuck-off as well as anything else.'

-- A Sister from Great Lakes Naval Base

FOR A LONG TIME, WE HAVE RAPPED TO BOTH OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN THE SERVICE. BUT WE HAVE NEVER DEALT WITH THE SPECIFIC PROBLEMS THAT SISTERS ARE FACING IN THE SERVICE--WHETHER IT BE AS WOMEN SOLDIERS, AS WIVES, OR DAUGHTERS OF SERVICEMEN. SO A FEW OF US WENT UP TO GREAT LAKES NAVAL TRAINING BASE TO RAP TO SOME SISTERS ABOUT WHAT WAS COMING DOWN AND THIS IS WHAT THEY HAD TO SAY:

Q - As a wave, your first taste of Navy life was in boot camp, right? What was that like?

Wave - 'Boot camp, in Maryland, was really a bummer. You had to march everywhere you went. Everything had to be perfect - your locker had to be just right, clothes all folded perfectly. Some waves couldn't hack it. It was so bad, in the ten weeks I was in boot camp 2 girls tried to commit suicide - one cut her wrists; one took an overdose of tranquilizers.'

Q - Well, why did you join?

Wave - 'In high school I dug electronics but couldn't afford to go to college. This way I could get a free education and get away from home and the cops, plus travel a bit and meet freaks.'

Q - Are you still in the Navy's electronic school?

Wave - 'No, they kicked me out half way through and dropped my six years option. I got hassled by chiefs because I wouldn't play their game. I didn't act the way a woman in the Navy is supposed to act. I didn't do what they told me to do or go by their rules and discipline. I would rather tell a chief to fuck-off as well as anything else.'

Q - What kinds of problems did you have with the lifers?

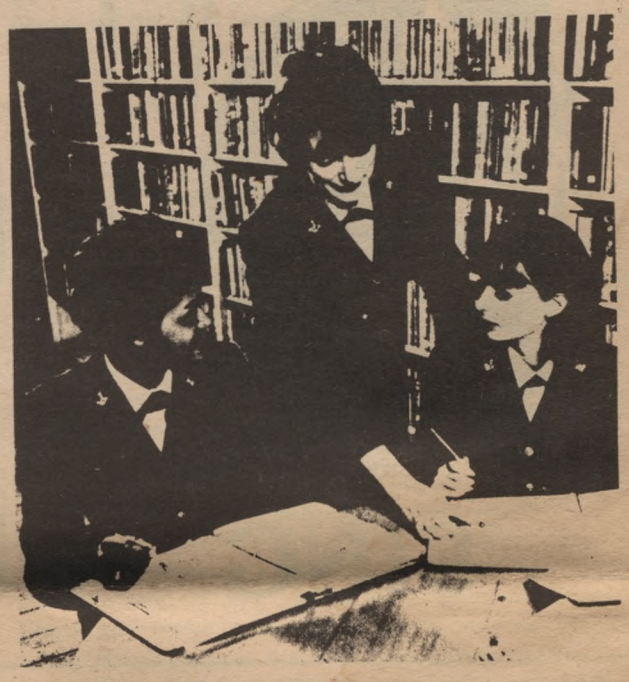
Wave - 'Well man, some people - like lifers -just enjoy giving people a hard time. I went to captain's mass a couple of Friday's ago because this one 2nd class wave told me to get my hair cut. I had worn it down that day and you aren't supposed to. So she wrote me up for it. And I had a twenty-five dollar fine. I told her I wasn't going to get my hair cut. So I got written up for disobeying a lawful order. When I went to captain's mass, commander Adams told me to get my hair cut, too. But I said I wouldn't and he couldn't do too much because I'm just not going to cut it!

Q - Right on - Off the lifer pigs! Could you talk a little about how the waves get along with each other? Like are there tensions between blacks and whites?

Wave - The navy tries to divide blacks and whites, which I can't dig. People are people no matter what color they are. It's really strange how some white girls fear black sisters. Like, some black sisters really messed up some lifers. It was out of sight to see someone screwing up the navy after it has been screwing up so many people. But some of the white girls couldn't dig it because they're scared of black sisters.

Q - What are you going to do when you get out?

Wave - 'I could get pregnant and get an honorable discharge, but I don't want to worry about a kid. I have this boyfriend who is getting out and we have plans when I finally get discharged. We are going to split on our cycles and bum around a lot, raise hell and be free.'



POWER TO THE SISTERS

Wave - 'Some black waves got fed up with what was going on around the wave barracks, so they had a few fights with some of the other waves who had been getting down on them.'

Q - Was it racial?

Wave - 'Yeah, some rascism. But there was also one black wave that was giving them a hard time. She had a lifer attitude. That's something that the black brothers and sisters don't care for on this base. So 4 waves got together and whipped a few peoples tails. It sort of got the lifers on the base upset, so they put the 4 sisters in the brig. Word got around pretty fast to the brothers, about what was going on. So the brothers ran down to the old brig and stood around in support for quite a while. They had a lot of arguments with the lifers there. Finally they had to let the sisters out of the brig. Thev brought them back to the wave cage but with guards on the door. That's what we call the waves barracks. They are treated that way, like animals. 3 days later, the sisters were discharged honorably by the government. This is a real victory. Hope this happens to all blacks.'

rap with navy wife & her husband

Q - What do you think of waves?

Wife - 'I can't see a woman in the navy. Fighting for her freedom, yes, but in the service?

Q - What is navy life like for wives of servicemen? Are there things to do?

Wife - 'Things to do? No. Most of the time I'm here(at home). I don't have a car, nothing to do and can't find a job. When you get here, you don't know anyone else. It's rough at first, but you sort of get used to it.'

Q - What is the navy's attitude toward wives?

Corpman - 'When they deal with you up front it seems o.k. But in one case, when the allotment check (money you get for your family) was late, I went down to the dispersing office to ask when it would come through. The officer said if they had wanted me to get married, they would have issued me a wife in my sea bag in boot camp. I told them I probably wouldn't have liked her because she would have been navy issue. Another guy hit an officer for saying the same thing. '

Q - How about the navy's attitude toward children, especially daughters?

Corpman - 'If I had a kid in high school, he would have a dependents I.D., and wouldn't have any trouble getting on the base and wouldn't have any problem bringing a date on the base. But, if I had a daughter, her date wouldn't have an I.D. So, they would stop him at the gate and hassle him and ask him a million questions. They would have to call my house first and more than likely, I wouldn't have a phone. Lots of hassles like this. Her date would be down there two hours, then I would have to go down and get him and take all responsibility for anything that he says or does while he is on the base. If he burned down the base, it would be the same thing as if I had burned it down. If my daughter or my wife does something wrong, it would be just as if I did it. If a wife gets caught for anything wrong, it's the man who is held responsible.'

They say that he killed a brother
But this we know, just cannot be
He's proven his love for his people,
That's why Bobby must be set free,
Bobby must be set Free.

III
How many more brothers must die,
Before we all finally see
The oppressor has no rights we are bound to respect,

If we must we'll hold back the night

NO MORE

I
From Watts, to Brownsville, we find misery,
But there won't be no more, won't be no more,
Rats, dirt, and kids who are hungry,
There won't be no more, won't be no more,
Cause we've seen, how to be free,
Of pigs on our streets, and poverty,

To this way of life, we're closing the door,
So there won't be no more, won't be no more.

II
There were times, we stood by, like we could not see,
But there won't be no more, can't be no more,
We'll get guns, to defend, our communities,
There won't be no more, can't be no more,
We'll control, our destiny, no more murder, of
Our people, in their sleep,
To this way of life, we're closing the door
So there won't be no more, won't be no more.

III
Wars, 'round the world, to keep folks from being free,
There won't be no more, Black people - can't be no more,
Sending us to fight, some false enemy,
There can't be no more, can't be no more,
Because now, we understand, there'll be peace,
When racism, is killed in this land,
To this way of life, we're closing the door,
So there won't be no more, won't be no more

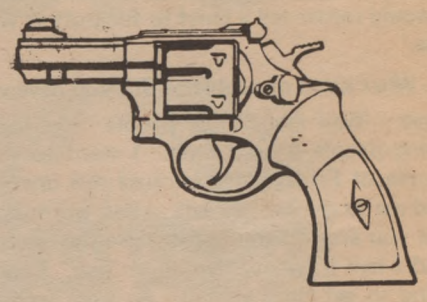
self-defense

This is the 4th in the Angry series on Self-defense groups. (This series is based on articles in the Black Panther Party newspaper). The first 3 issues dealt with why we should organize self-defense groups, what types of weapons self-defense groups should have and how to care for and shoot guns. This article deals with things to keep in mind when carrying out actions. The next few articles (to appear in future issues of Angry) will deal with the care and use of each particular type of weapon a self-defense group should have.

POWER TO THE STRAIGHT SHOOTERS!



how to combat CMI

The principal of Juche (Self-Reliance) clarified by Eldridge Cleaver, the Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party, is "Use what you got to get what you need." To answer the question of how do you combat the pigs' C.M.I. (communication, mobility and information), we must first determine what we have going for ourselves. Checking out the practice of self-defense groups, we see that we have the power to determine what is to happen, when it is to happen and how it is supposed to go down. What, When and How (W.W.H.)- the element of surprise. The pigs have C.M.I. and self-defense groups have W. W. H.

INFORMATION

To consider a self-defense operation successful is not to just plan and execute but to plan, execute AND escape. There have been too many instances where members of self-defense groups have planned and executed righteous blows against this racist system only to be captured, wounded or killed. These are the consequences for revolutionary activity, however we must keep casualties within an acceptable minimum. The slogan must be Maximum Damage to the Enemy, Minimum Damage to Us. Practice has shown that when planning W.W.H. if it is done with knowledge and an understanding of C.M.I. casualties will be kept within an acceptable minimum. Too often, much attention is given to a plan up to the point of execution without giving the same attention to evasion and escape, that phase of the operation that determines success. This is a subjective approach, a onesided approach. W.W.H. is only one side of the coin, C.M.I. is the other side. Because self-defense groups use W.W.H., the pigs' C.M.I. does not go into operation until a self-defense group commits itself by actually executing some type of self-defense activity.

All of us should be aware that once C.M.I. is activated pigs start showing on the set from 30 seconds to 1 minute maximum in every major city in Babylon, therefore the success or failure of a defense operation is dependent upon the attention given to C.M.I. and the planning of evasion and escape.

As I see it, learning to deal with the pigs' C.M.I. is the number one military problem facing revolutionary forces in Babylon today. It is time for all who have something to teach, by example, to step forward. And remember, to die honorably, one does not need company.

USE WHAT YOU GOT TO GET WHAT YOU NEED

D.C.

CHINA

China is a revolutionary giant, possessing one fourth (800,000,000) of the world's humanity in her revolutionary soul. Revolutionary brothers and sisters in America should have a better understanding and knowledge of China's history and struggle, and how it came to its position, today, as the vanguard of the world revolution.

Life in China had remained basically the same for thousands of years. The peasant masses, tied to the land under the system of fuedalism, farmed small plots, paying the rich landlord class in crops. Drought, floods and ruthless exploitation, by the landlord class and the war lords, left the people perpetually in debt, forcing the sale of all possessions: the few meagre tools used to farm the small plot and even their wives and children. For thousands of years millions died yearly. Many millions more were locked in the slavery of feudalism, which relegated the human to a position of less than a dog.

Throughout China's long history there were many peasant rebellions, many upheavels aimed at the ruthless exploitation of the masses by the landlord class. But it was not until 1920, with the formation of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), that the just hatred the peasant masses felt toward the exploiters and their hired thugs, was effectively channeled and directed by Marxist ideology and Chinese revolutionary strategy and tactics. The Chinese Communist Party (CCP), starting with nothing but a handful of men and women, and revolutionary ideas, came from the people. It led the people to victory, the seizing of state power, in 1944 by ousting US backed Chiang Kai-Shek and his reactionary Kuomintang (KMT) army.

The progressive forces and the masses of people, led by the CCP, never stopped fighting for the freedom to have the people run it. They waged a civil war against the KMT, who represented the landlord class and city rich, and who were backed at various times by British, French, German and American Imperialists. When the Japanese invaded China, the progressive people's force fought the Japanese. At the urging of the CCP, the KMT agreed to cool the civil war and put the emphasis against Japan, though in reality the KMT did little against Japanese fascism, and placed the progressive masses in a position of having to fight a civil war and a war against foreign invaders at the same time.

Before the war against Japan became a major focus, the CCP, under the leadership of Mao Tse-Tung, understood that it would be a very long struggle, and that even though the KMT would control the country for a long time, it was necessary to create a revolutionary climate. They did this by building base areas, such as Kiangsi Province in the South. Mao likened the base area to the ass of a human: 'without either, one could never rest and recuperate, but would be obliged to run about until exhausted'. In the base area, the red army was built, revolutionary ways of people working the land together were implimented, and a revolutionary government created. The base areas would expand and contract. At one point, after years of building, the Kiangsi base area and the Red Army were under such pressure by the much larger (300,000 troops) and better equipped KMT, that they were forced to abandon what they had built.

Mao initiated the famous Long March from Kiangsi to Yenan Province in the North. This march by the Red Army, CCP cadre and members of the base area revolutionary government, was a retreat from the KMT, but the ultimate example of the way the Chinese revolutionaries turned defeat into victory time and time again. On the Long March, which lasted for two years and covered over six thousand miles over some of the earth's most rugged terrain, the Party and the Army lost many people - through death in battle or through sickness and starvation. Many more, who were too weak to go on, were left en route, to develop revolutionary groups throughout the parts of the country traveled by the March. Those people who made it through were tough; they had learned how to work together and had developed iron clad revolutionary discipline that contributed so greatly to the building of a people's army that had started as a ragged army of poor students, poor peasants, ex-bandits and beggars.

The building of the Red Army, which united with the peasants and city workers, made the difference in the people's long battle against the KMT. While the KMT relied on superior military might, with US supplied guns, planes and trained soldiers who had no regard for the people, the Red Army placed emphasis on political education, on military affairs being subordinate to political affairs. Wherever the Army went, it gained the respect of the people of China for thousands of years. The Red Army stood by principles such as: 'do not take even a needle or thread from the people. Condiser the people as your family. All that you have borrowed you must return.' These were revolutionary troops: they did not pillage the land or the people as reactionary, fascist and imperialist armies have always done before and since. The Red Army continues to be an army of the people.

Mao and Ho Chi Minh——two lifelong revolutionary leaders

The Red Army after its victory.

The youth always make the revolution.

Recently, during student and worker rebellions against school and factory bureaucracies, the army supported and encouraged this right to rebel and to continue making the revolution within the revolution.

After the defeat of the Japanese, which came with eight years of fighting, the CCP and all progressive people in China had to decide what price would they pay for internal peace. To have peace with the KMT meant no land reform, and a return to the old feudal ways. Unlike the Communist led European resistance movements that fought the Germans, the CCP did not put down the gun. For to free the people from their age old feudal bondage to the land, the land had to belong to the people. And as Mao stated, 'Political power grows out of the barrel of a gun.' It doesn't grow out of meaningless elections.

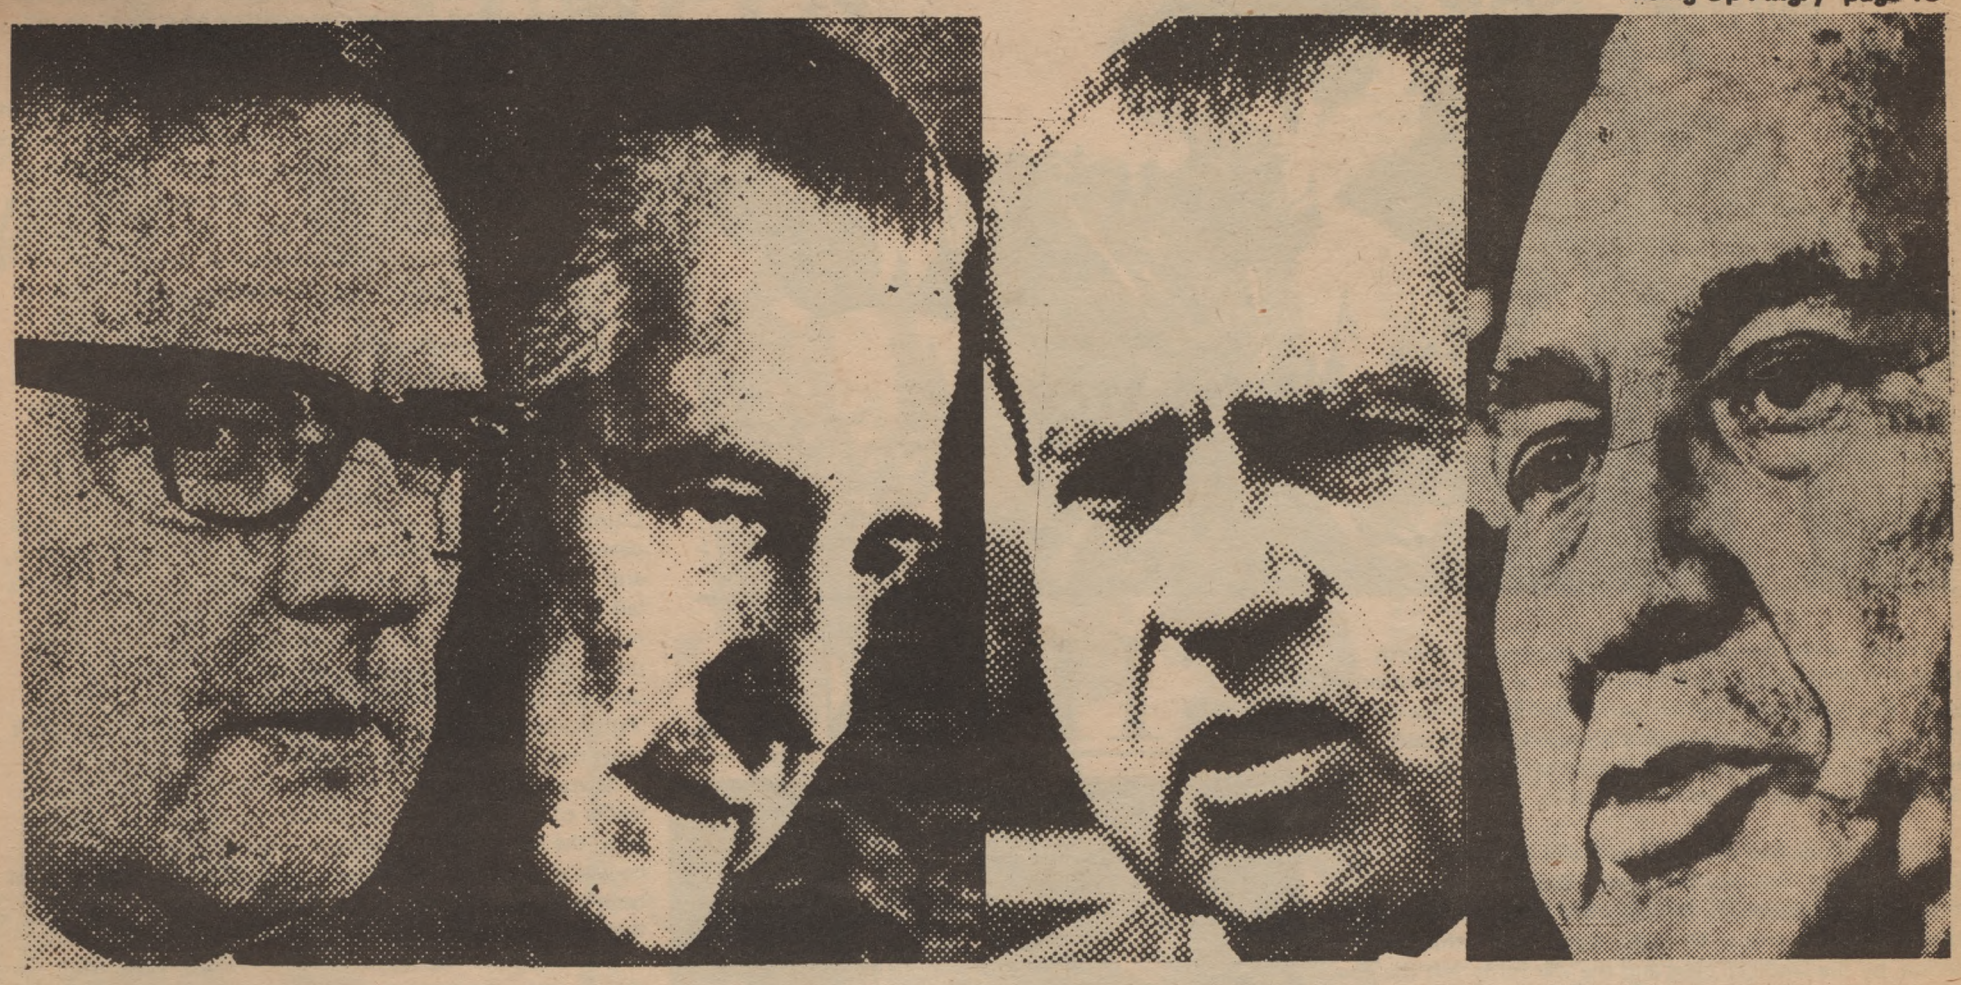
It was such insight of Mao that made him the ultimate leader of the Revolutionary forces and the Chinese people since the early 1930's. During the first 15 years of the CCP he was at odds with other party leaders, many of whom had been trained in Russia. It was Mao's position throughout, that while following the ideology of Marxism - Leninism, and having great respect for the 1917 Russian revolution, that to make the revolution in China meant the Sinification (finding a Chinese way) of Marxism. He was down on those Chinese radicals who knew volumes and volumes of revolutionary theory, but knew little about the good things in Chinese history. He said 'we are the heirs of all that is precious in China's past'. It was Mao who first went among the peasants and first took to the hills to build a guerrilla band that grew into the triumphant red army, securing victory and justice for the struggling masses.

With victory, the China of old died forever. With state power (the forces of revolution in power), the people could now begin to build. Basic was land reform, with the masses of peasants first given land, and then moving to a higher level to farm it collectively. Women, who for centuries had been virtual slaves, were now free to work and build their country and in so doing, freed themselves from the mind bending domination of pre-revolutionary China's oppressive feudal traditions and customs. Women entered every phase of the work force, from construction to medicine. And education, once permitted only to the priviledged, was now open to the masses everywhere.

China, an agrarian (agricultural) country, was now free to shape its own economy, rather than depend on British and US direction. She leaped forward, beginning to industrialize, building dams to bring the people electricity, beginning to build machinery that would allow further industrialization such as the production of trucks and farm impliments - all of which would serve the people and free them forever from the slavery of a feudal agricultural economy.

Even then the revolution was not ended. Revolution is more than land and the rights of women and mass education. Revolution must take on the whole structure and values of a society. Revolution is something that continues forever. And so it is in China today, with the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution, which began in 1966. It was initiated by Mao and people in the Party and Army, like him, who did not want the revolution to become stagnant. The cultural revolution is millions of young people who did not fight Japan or the KMT, and did not go on the long march, experiencing the protracted (on going) struggle for revolutionary social change. The cultural revolution is a struggle against those who would sell out the people, sell out the revolution and take the capitalist road as did Russia who is communist in name only, not in reality. The cultural revolution places utmost importance in the people, for it is the people that make history by acting to shape history.

Mao, who came from the people in the poor peasant province of Hunan, has continually gone to the people to urge them to take mass action, to take matters out of the hands of the bureaucrats and place them in their own. In the case of the cultural revolution, he urged the people to again, smash a growing bureaucracy - he urged students to go among the people in order to know how to serve the people. He urged the people to change everything that needed to be changed and not wait for things to be done for them. He leads the people and helps the people to believe in themselves. The cultural revolution began on the university campuses, with students who saw professors and teachers talking radically, but not caring about the workers and peasants. It spread to the high schools, and then saw the formation of rebel groups among workers and eventually every aspect of Chinese life. In China today, millions of young people demand nothing for themselves but a chance to take part in the continuing and ongoing transformation of their country. People's China is an inspiration to all revolutionaries, because it is an example of ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!



BORN LOSERS

If you listened to any AM radio rock last month, you must have heard all those commercials with some politician rapping down why he should win the election or why the chump he is running against should lose. The jivest one was when one of the guys who ran (and lost) for county assessor, Ben Adamowski, tells you that the other guy, P.J. Cullerton, has a house in Palm Springs. Ben says: 'Anybody who's been to this luxury house, raise your hand.' - and while the announcer yells - 'Ben's back - back Ben.' - Adamowski chuckles in the background thinking he's really put it to old P.J. But the real question is who's ever been over to Ben's house to blow some dope or drink some wine? Or any politician's house for that matter. Can't you just see Mayor Daley truckin' on down to 37th and Lowe (just outside his house) to rap to the neighborhood grease? Or how about the new senator, Adlai Stevenson III? (the 3 after his name tells you how many millions he's got.) That dude lives on Astor Street, right off Lake Shore Drive. He'd have to walk for miles to find some brothers and sisters. And he's the guy who said he should be the senator from Illinois because he's the only one who's really into the people.

That's what they all say, from Nixon all the way down (or should we say up) - especially around election time. Ha! There's never been a politician who cared about the people - and there never will be so long as capitalism - which puts money at a higher value than people - is in control. It doesn't matter who won the election the first week in November because the government the winners work for just doesn't operate to serve the brothers and sisters on the block or their families. It can't. It's set up to make money for big businessmen and large property owners. It's set up to keep poor black, latin and white people, in America, poor. It's set up to keep people in Asia, Africa and Latin America from trying to seize the power over their lives that will let them begin to live decently. It's not set up for the people at all.

The guy who said in his campaign, 'This job is about people,' was right. Only nobody does the job. But don't get the idea that if someone who really cared about the people and how we live (like right-on brothers or sisters you run with) got to be alderman or senator or something, that anything would change. The American government needs big business as much as business needs the government. And both of them need the police (to protect them in the streets and in their highrise apartments and suburban estates) and the military (to protect their property in other countries). They all need each other. So just putting different people (no matter how righteous they are) in place of the politician chumps won't help. Something else has to change for elections to mean anything to us.

The thing that has to change is the idea that men can make bankfuls of money off the work that other women and men (always much poorer) do. Well, if you changed that idea big business would fall down dead in the street. And if the government operates with the money and material that business feeds it, the government would kick off right on the same street.

Then it would be a whole new bag. Then the people really could run it. Then the work we'd do would be to make things better for everyone - not just some pig who happened to own a place. People wouldn't get tricked into messing over other people. Then an election might mean something. The winners would be working for a government which really operated for the people.

RED DEVIL IS NOT CONNECTED WITH RISING UP ANGRY IN ANY WAY WHAT-SO EVER!

Rising Up Angry, being a revolutionary organization serving the people, recognizes the need for revolutionary discipline. Members of the Central Staff and all Angry Cadre study together, work together, and understand very well that without tying our lives together in a revolutionary, collective and disciplined fashion, we would be doing a disservice to the American and World revolutionary movement. Hence we recognize that the individual is subordinate to the group, to the revolutionary organization. To make the revolution we must practice revolutionary discipline. A bunch of individuals, running amuck doing their own thing, play into the hands of the pigs.

Red Devil started to come around Angry and sell papers. As the organization grew and developed to a higher level, he wanted to be a member of the Angry Cadre group. He attended education sessions, participated in mass work, and was involved in other organizational functions. But Red Devil could not make the break with an individualistic past, even though he wanted to be a revolutionary and work with others. He interfered with the revolutionary work being carried out by other brothers and sisters, and in general became a drain on the organization, demanding attention for personal matters that cannot take precedence over the higher revolutionary duties of all Angry Cadre.

Red Devil was suspended from all organizational responsibilities for a period of time and told to engage in activities that would lead to self-improvement. He failed and weeks later he came to a cadre meeting saying he had been suspended because he was a gay brother. People explained that this was not true, that he was welcome in the organization if he would accept the organization's discipline and act in a revolutionary manner. He failed.

Since that time he has spread many lies about Angry. Let it be known, across the land, that Rising Up Angry has met with the Gay Liberation movement in Chicago, that we recognize that gays are an oppressed group, and that we support and consider revolutionary gay brothers and sisters to be an important part of the total revolutionary struggle. Our expulsion of Red Devil is in no way connected to Angry's position on the Gay Liberation movement.

Red Devil is no longer connected with the Rising Up Angry revolutionary organization in any way. Red Devil is a Liar.

PRISONS & JAILS

Rising Up Angry is cooperating with the Black Panther Party in providing free transportation for all parents, relatives and friends to visit their loved ones held captive in prisons, jails, reformatories, "homes" throughout the State of Illinois.

We want people to observe the notorious conditions at these institutions, to see the prisons in operation, and to go to various prison officials and let them know that the people are watching, that things have changed. The actions of these correction officials will no longer be hidden in the darkness or unawareness, but will be exposed in the light of political consciousness by the people

Contact Rising Up Angry if you want to visit someone, or if you want to help let others know about this program. Rides can be arranged to St. Charles, Sheridan, Vandalia, Menard, Joliet, Pontiac, and house and other places.
